Number of Participants: 85 students of D.Pharm, B.Pharm and M.Pharm

Objectives of the Event:

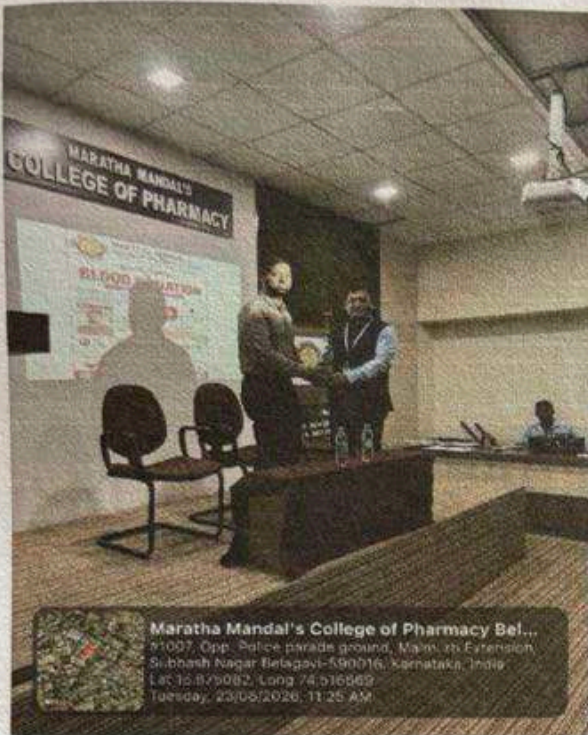

1. To create awareness among students about the importance of voluntary blood donation.
2. To educate students about the eligibility criteria, blood donation process, and common misconceptions.
3. To motivate students to become regular voluntary blood donors and contribute to society.
4. To emphasize the role of blood donation in saving lives and supporting healthcare services.

Event Summary:

The NSS Unit of Maratha Mandal's College of Pharmacy, Belagavi, organized a Guest Lecture on Blood Donation Awareness on 23rd June 2026 at 10:30 AM for D. Pharm, B. Pharm and M. Pharm students. The session was delivered by Dr. Shafi, Professor and HOD of Pathology Department at Bharatesh Homeopathic Medical College Belagavi, who shared valuable insights on the significance of voluntary blood donation, donor eligibility, the blood donation procedure, benefits of donating blood, and the need to maintain an adequate blood supply for emergencies and medical treatments. The lecture also addressed common myths and fears associated with blood donation through an interactive discussion. Students actively participated by asking questions and gaining practical knowledge about the importance of becoming responsible blood donors.

Conclusion:

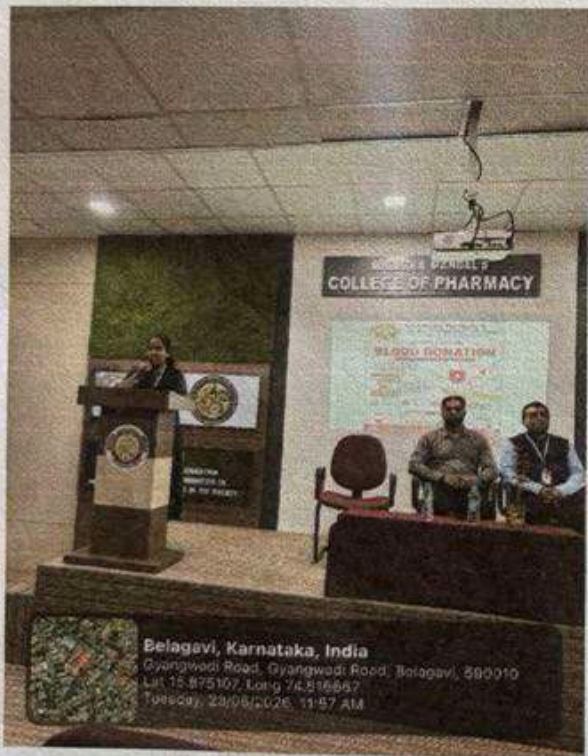

The guest lecture successfully enhanced students' understanding of blood donation and encouraged them to participate in voluntary blood donation initiatives. The informative and interactive session inspired students to recognize blood donation as a noble act that can save lives. The programme concluded with a vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to the guest speaker for sharing his expertise and motivating students towards community service.
